HALF DAY URUBAMBA – URQUILLOS

This is an easy ride that takes us on paths through communities, the town of Urubamba, the farms and fields of Chihubamba and from there, towards Yucay, Huayllabamba and Urquillos.

This excursion does not need the assistance of a support vehicle as the entire route is Easily accessible from the hotel.
We provide bikes, helmets, a guide and a snack.

We ride on mostly rural routes where there is no traffic. In certain points, when there is no alternative, we have to use paved roads. This journey of approximately 26 kilometers, crosses mostly flat terrain, and is appropriate for beginners.

It's an excursion into the everyday life of the valley, a chance to encounter villagers as they go about their usual tasks: working in fields, planting, tilling. The stunning views along the way are an added bonus.

The town of Yucay has some fine examples of ancient Incan terraces, as well as ruins of fine masonry of the period. Urquillos and Huayllabamba are typical agricultural towns that keep alive many cultural traditions.
