

---

Cartagena, Colombia

6 bedroom colonial house

History of the House

According to the tradition, Don Sancho Jimeno de Orozco, important mayor of the province, used to live in this house in the 17th century. He heroically defended the city of Cartagena during the siege and took by the French in the year 1697.

Today the house has been judiciously restored and offers an unforgettable experience of comfort and good taste for those who stay there. Its privileged location allows you to tour the city's lively and colorful streets, discover the cultural sensitivity of its people and feel the unique magic that identifies Cartagena.

Food and Beverage

The house is operated with hotel standards. Therefore, it is staffed. Breakfast is included in the daily rate. All extra drinks and meals can be arranged with the private chef and will be charged separately. (Bring your own drinks in the house is not allowed)

The Facilities

- 1 small private swimming pool on the ground floor
- 1 roof top deck with Jacuzzi
- 1 reading and TV room
- Living room

The Rooms

The house has 6 bedrooms, located on the different floors of the building. They can all bed with king beds or twin beds and one of the rooms has a sofa bed if necessary. They all have air conditioning and private bathroom.

